Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurBeyond the main street of Les Laveuses runs the Loire, smooth and brown as a sunning snake - but hiding a deadly undertow beneath its moving surface. This is where Framboise, a secretive widow, plies her culinary trade at the crperie - and lets her memory play strange games.As her nephew attempts to exploit the growing success of the country recipes Framboise has inherited from her mother, a woman remembered with contempt by the villagers, memories of a disturbed childhood during the German Occupation flood back, and expose a past full of betrayal, blackmail and lies.Revue de presse"Unexpectedly sweet and powerful." (New York Times Book )"The craftsmanship and emotional power of this novel...place Ms. Harris in the forefront of women writers." (Richmond Times-Dispatch)"Compelling . . . Harris once again revels in the smells and tastes of French food."
