Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThree men raid the gambling casino run by the Ute nation and then disappear into the maze of canyons on the Utah-Arizona border. When the FBI, with its helicopters and high-tech equipment, focuses on a wounded deputy sheriff as a possible suspect, Navajo Tribal Police Sergeant Jim Chee and his longtime colleague, retired Lieutenant Joe Leaphorn, launch an investigation of their own. Chee sees a dangerous flaw in the federal theory; Leaphorn sees intriguing connections to the exploits of a legendary Ute bandit-hero. And together, they find themselves caught up in the most perplexing -- and deadly -- criminal manhunt of their lives. Revue de presse Hillerman soars. (Boston Globe) His best. (Rocky Mountain News) Irresistible. (Los Angeles Times) Tony Hillerman is a wonderful storyteller.... Surrendering to Hillerman's strong narrative voice and supple storytelling techniques, we come to see that ancient cultures and modern sciences are simply different mythologies for the same reality. (New York Times Book Review) Complex, engrossing... On their own, (Leaphorn and Chee) are compelling; as a duo they're the best since Lennon and McCartney.
