Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY JAMES WOODS Scobie, a police officer serving in a wartime West African state, is distrusted, being scrupulously honest and immune to bribery. But then he falls in love, and in doing so he is forced to betray everything he believes in, with drastic and tragic consequences. Revue de presse "The most ingenious, inventive and exciting of our novelists, rich in exactly etched and moving portraits of real human beings" (V. S. Pritchett The Times) "Greene was a master of characterisation and this book is no exception" (Independent on Sunday) "In a class by himself - the ultimate chronicler of twentieth-century man's consciousness and anxiety" (William Golding Independent) "A superb storyteller with a gift for provoking controversy" (New York Times) "Greene had the sharpest eyes for trouble, the finest nose for human weaknesses, and was pitilessly honest in his observations... For experience of a whole century he was the man within" (Norman Sherry Independent)Prsentation de l'diteurWITH AN INTRODUCTION BY JAMES WOODScobie, a police officer serving in a wartime West African state, is distrusted, being scrupulously honest and immune to bribery.
