Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurA collection of children's stories designed to introduce concepts and themes for the Centenary of the outbreak of the First World War which begins in 2014.Meet Bertie and a whole host of other characters, including The Captain, The Black Baron, Sister Sophie and the Phantom in the Clock

Tower. There are 5 stories in the set which includes stories about the first tank battle of the war. Our heroes visit Paris and face tragedy in their search for the Phantom in the Clock tower and the daring duel in the sky with the ferocious Black Baron. Exploring such themes as heroism, loyalty and fear, death and duty, the moral case for war and the resilience of the human spirit, these stories will enchant and stimulate thought and debate and provide a useful intro to other WW1 development activities. Designed as a story and activity pack for Primary schools and teachers, there will be a CD of songs and incidental music available which supports any development work you may wish to do with the stories. Suggested activities at the end of each story will stimulate a wide range of creative projects which can include song, composition, dance and drama elements. An enchanting collection of stories which will challenge and entertain.
